Another design from Wandering Cat Studio

Queen of Hearts

We recently started dyeing gradient yarns, and I wanted to create a shawl pattern to showcase them. This colourway just cried out for hearts and lace - so Queen of Hearts was born

It's an easy little shawlette that would look good in a gradient, solid, or semi-solid yarn. Add a touch of romantic whimsy, and a little heart-melting warmth to your wardrobe.

Happy knitting,

Valerie

- Wrong side rows are not charted - these rows are purled, with the exception of the edge stitches which are knit.
