From The Chairman Takin' Care of Business

It's hard for me to believe, but as you read this, we've moved into the second half of our Chamber year, and we're already initiating processes for new leaders, goals, and budgets for next year. If you would like to have input in any of those areas, I'd like to hear from you, and I know the staff would as well.

Another very successful event, the 7th Annual Show-down in San Angelo Drag Boat Races (June 21-23), has concluded as I write this. Although it will take a few more weeks for everything to settle, the early indications are that we had a very successful weekend. The outstanding number of presales of RV, camping and viewing spaces, and a wonderful number of racers that turned out, are indications that we will end up with good numbers. The success of the event is due to the hard work and long hours of the Drag Boat Race Committee, the months of organized effort by the Chamber staff, and the outstanding community support contributed by the sponsors and volunteers. If you attended, volunteered, or contributed in any way, you have my sincerest thanks. We also want to thank Lucas Oil and Speedco as presenting sponsors, as well as the City, County, and public service officials who support the event. Last year's race aired on TV five times, so we'll let you know as soon as we obtain the dates of this year's telecasts.

The June 11 monthly luncheon brought one of our former community leaders back for a visit. Dr. Dan Stultz, President of the Texas Hospital Association, gave a compelling speech to members in which he advocated for the State and Nation to reward the behavior it wants in medical services. Thanks to Shannon Medical Center, MHMR Services for the Concho Valley, and West Texas Counseling & Guidance for sponsoring this event, and to San Angelo Museum of Fine Arts for the excellent venue.

Just two days after the Boat Races, Chicken Express stepped up and provided the setting for the June 25 Business @ Happy Hour at its Northside location, 2831 N. Bryant Blvd. The June 18 Business Brown Bag luncheon sponsored by the Business Factory, SBDC and Chamber highlighted the valuable services available from the Concho Valley Workforce Development Board. Several changes of command and other activities took place at Goodfellow last month, and we want to thank Goodfellow for their continued commitment to the Boat Races.

Leadership San Angelo graduated its 30th class last month. During the event, Jamie Akin was named the "Bob Diebitsch Outstanding Alumnus Civic Leader of the Year," Gayla Thornton and Mary Payton jointly received the Association's Member of the Year Award, Ethicon was named the Association's Outstanding Business, and Harry Thomas was honored as outgoing President of the Association as Greg Stephens stepped in as its 2013-2014 President. With well over 800 LSA graduates, this successful Chamber program has helped provide outstanding volunteer support for San Angelo over the past thirty years. Applications for the next class will be available in early August, and you may contact Sandra Pomroy now to receive an application when available.

Please make note of these opportunities:

- Register soon for the 10th annual West Texas Legislative Summit on August 7-8. The sessions on the 8th will focus on immigration issues, and the pre-summit reception will take place at San Angelo Museum of Fine Arts. Congressman Mike Conaway will appear on the program, and his staff members have been instrumental in planning this year's Summit.
- Round two of "The Affordable Care Act" will be the focus of the July 16 Business Brown Bag Lunch at the Riverview Room, facilitated by Eric Becker of San Angelo Community Medical Center. Please call 655-4136 for a free reservation or to order a $7 box lunch with the session.
- Also on July 16, join us for Chamber Night at the San Angelo Colts. Just identify yourself as a Chamber member at the ticket window to receive your $3 per person tickets.
- Join us for Business @ Happy Hour on Tuesday, July 23, at Advanced Eye Care, 1721 Knickerbocker.

With your help, we're takin' care of business, and hope to see you sometime in July.

Mark Thieman
Chairman of the Board

Business Partners Needed for the Concho Valley Home for Girls' Self-Sufficiency Program

Goal: To help former foster youth become self-sufficient through training and employment

The Concho Valley Home for Girls is now the home of the San Angelo Transition Center for Foster Youth. This Transition Center serves approximately 75 young men and women ages 16 to 26 that have been in foster care. The Self-Sufficiency program is available to these former foster youth. This program is offered through the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC).

The Self-Sufficiency program enables former foster youth to obtain training to work in a specific field. However, the funds for the training only become available to assist the former foster youth once businesses agree to partner with the Concho Valley Home for Girls. For instance, many former foster youth seek to obtain training as a Certified Nurses' Aide through the Self-Sufficiency program. In order for the TWC to pay for the C.N.A. training, the Concho Valley Home for Girls must find businesses willing to hire those C.N.A.s once the training is complete. Therefore, the Concho Valley Home for Girls is actively seeking business partners within San Angelo. At the present time, we have developed partnerships with multiple nursing homes, a welding business, and a pharmacy. Training is also available for Air Conditioning Repair, Automotive Services, and Truck Driving. At the current time, however, business partners are needed in these fields before the TWC will fund the training. These partnerships give many young men and women the opportunity to become trained in fields that lead to employment and the ability to become self-sufficient citizens of San Angelo.

Businesses are encouraged to contact the Transition Center Workforce Advocate, Tiffany Case, to learn more about the Self-Sufficiency program. Please e-mail her at Tiffany@conchokids.org or call at 325-655-3821.

Board Member Perspective

Your Chamber is guided by 19 volunteers who make up the Board of Directors. Each month we feature a different board member perspective to better acquaint you with the men and women who serve in these leadership roles.

Sam Allen

I graduated from Santa Anna High School and started college at Angelo State University in 1976. I marched in the ASU Golden Ram Band and chased a lot of cute young ladies at ASU (the most beautiful of whom I married). I started my law practice in Dallas in 1983 but Joy and I moved back to San Angelo as quickly as we could. We raised our two kids here, and San Angelo is truly our home.

I'm honored to be a partner in Jackson Walker L.L.P., a 125 year old Texas law firm with over 340 attorneys statewide. I've been with the firm for almost 15 years, and my practice consists mainly of business transactions and litigation with some real estate, estate planning and probate as well. I've been board certified in bankruptcy law for almost 25 years, but in these economic times, there's not much going on in bankruptcy court. That's a good thing.

Our firm has always been a Chamber member, but I didn't really understand all that the Chamber does for its membership and for San Angelo until I first served on the board in 2004. I was so impressed that I offered to serve on the board again as soon as I could. Serving as Board Chair last year was both a great honor and a humbling experience. I continue to be amazed and grateful for all the hard work and commitment that comes every day from the Chamber's members, directors, and (certainly) staff. The business community here is compassionate, energetic, innovative, and honest. I'm quite proud to be associated with all of them.

As I've said, for every whit that I might have added to the cause, I have received back personal and professional benefits ten-fold, mashed down, and flowing over. I love this town, and I'm always proud to tell someone that I'm from "S'ngelo". Hopefully you feel the same way.

22nd Annual Business Expo

Sponsorships

As the largest business-to-business tradeshow in the Concho Valley, this annual event holds unique opportunities for businesses, non-profits, and individuals. Through sponsorship of the “Follow the Yellow Brick Road to Business Success” Business Expo on Thursday, September 26th at the McNease Convention Center, you and your organization can spotlight yourselves as a local business leader.

Silver Sponsors:

Only fifteen Silver Sponsorships at $800 each are available at the Business Expo. These premier sponsorships include premium booth space and accessories, logo recognition on all Expo materials and online advertising, and additional signage at the event.

Business @ Happy Hour at Business Expo Sponsor:

The largest Business @ Happy Hour of the year is held at the Business Expo with an estimated 400 people attending. The event is held at the end of the Expo, and also serves to announce the conclusion of the Expo’s Silent Auction. During the event, the Chamber will draw again for its monthly cash drawing, and you will have the opportunity to address the audience to tell them about your business, and give away door prizes. This event can have multiple sponsors at $350 each.

Bag Sponsor:

All attendees are greeted at the door and given a “Goodie Bag” to collect promotional products and pamphlets from the exhibitors. This is a mobile marketing opportunity for your business with the approximately 2,500 attendees carrying your logo all over the event AND home! Only one organization will be able to sponsor this opportunity. To take advantage of this exclusive offer, your company will need to provide the bags and $250.

Exhibitor's Lounge Sponsor:

Almost every manager/owner/employee/decision maker for the businesses exhibiting at the Business Expo visits the Exhibitor’s Lounge during the event. By sponsoring this area at $1,000, your business is allowed to decorate the tables, distribute information, and provide volunteers for the area for one-on-one consulting or networking.
